PARKER, Pa. – March 29, 2013 - As part of Central Electric Cooperative’s (CEC) ongoing effort to improve system reliability, a contracted pole inspection crew will be inspecting the poles on circuits originating from Cowansville substation in Armstrong County.

Central Electric Cooperative, Inc. (CEC) will begin work April 1, 2013. CEC members and others with Electric poles on their property may see these inspections being conducted. Inspections typically include a visual inspection, sounding of the top of the pole and inspection up to 10 inches around the base of the pole. Poles identified as having issues will be added to the field under repair. Inspections will be conducted by representatives and CE employees carry company issued tools.

Central Electric Cooperative, Inc. (CEC) is a Touchstone Energy Co-op serving approximately 25,000 members with over 3,000 miles of electrical line in portions of Allegheny, Armstrong, Butler, Clarion, Crawford, LaPorte and Venango counties. The co-op has been serving members for 75 years.

Read more about the CEC’s electric poles on their property may see these inspections being conducted and to Improve System Reliability. CEC will give additional details as the project progresses. To learn more about questions or concerns, please contact CEC’s MainOffice, 800-521-0570 x 2702. We appreciate your patience and cooperation during these inspections. While pursuing her lifelong passion she has been a workshop instructor, juror and exhibitor with her marvelous and intricate wall hangings and taught world-wide in places as far away as Australia, New Zealand, Thailand, Laos, Germany, Sweden, Switzerland. She works as well as closer to home in Canada and forty five states in the US. Sigrid demonstrates a weaving technique.

The Red Brick will open at 1:00 PM on Sunday April 14th with a tribute reception from 3:00 PM to 5:00 PM.

An exhibit of the works of Sigrid Piroch. Sigrid, an award-winning weaver and fiber artist, will be featured...

Earlene loved her family and could often be found out in the spring and summer mowing her grass. She was an avid baker who loved to share her baking gifts with everyone in the community. Earlene was predeceased by her parents and many siblings. She lived to a ripe old age of 99, with a lengthy illness. She was married to her husband on June 1, 1969 to Terry Gerwick. She was the daughter of the late Charles J. Fye. Miss Earlene was a 1968 graduate of Slippery Rock University. She was a member of the Church of Eau Claire. She was a 1950 graduate of Slippery Rock College. She was a member of the Church of God in Campground, Ohio, where she enjoyed crafting and working with the church members. She was a loving and caring mother and a member of the Whitehall Church of God in Washington St., Emlenton, where she spent her childhood. She was married in Grove City on June 1, 1969 to Terry E. Taylor. She also survived her mother, Evelyn S. Snyder Frye of McGregor, a son, William E. Taylor and her husband, and a granddaughter, Trinity. She is also survived by her mother-in-law, Betty Jean Taylor; her maternal and paternal grandparents, and her granddaughter, Trinity. She will be missed by her family, with whom she could count on always being there. May she rest in peace.
